IMPLEMENTED CHANGES REDUCE LICENSURE DELAYS

Last year, the Department researched methods and processes that we could use to streamline the time it takes to license or provide certifications for most candidates. I am pleased to share that due to several implemented changes, we have been able to process most completed applications and license candidates more efficiently than ever before. Here are a few changes we have implemented:

Processing time for most design profession license applications.

6-8 weeks

2-4 weeks

Time to receive the status of an application after a board meeting.

2-3 weeks

5-7 days

Time to receive an examination and/or license certification.

2-4 weeks

1-2 days

Not all applications or certifications fall within these figures, as certain applications are required to be reviewed at Board meetings (which meet typically once every eight weeks) and some certifications must be mailed instead of sent electronically. That said, we believe this is a positive start to continue to provide more efficient and effective services. We continue to look for other ways to further expedite the process. As always, if there are ways that we can serve you better, please let us know. You may email your comments to us at: fpr.prfgroup02@illinois.gov

Sincerely,

Kyle Lazell
 Design Licensing Manager // Board Liaison

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES AMENDMENTS

As shared in the previous newsletter, all four design professions Practice Acts were recently renewed for another 10 years. Part of the re-authorization of the Acts included several changes that now require amendments to the respective sections of the Administrative Rules.

The Department is working with each respective Board to draft the rule amendments to reflect those changes and hopes to have these amendments approved and adopted in the near future.

Once the Administrative Rules have been amended, we will share information regarding the changes in the next available newsletter at that time. Your respective Illinois state association or society may also provide you with the updated Administrative Rules once they are available.

MONTHLY ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS TAKEN

Information regarding disciplinary actions taken by IDFPR against unlicensed individuals, licensed professionals and businesses, including the date(s) of discipline and a brief synopsis are public record and available on our website. For many of these actions, it is the final outcome of what began as a complaint submitted to the Department.

Monthly Enforcement Actions are available here:
