

How to Request a Certification of Licensure

Important Notice: Certification or Verification of RN or LPN licenses must be made via the NURSYS website at <https://www.nursys.com/> . Do not send requests to the Department. For all other professions, see instructions below.

Certifications of Licensure include the licensee name, license number and status, license issuance date and expiration date, and method of licensure and disciplinary action, if applicable. The certifications also include the Department seal and official signature.

Electronic Certification of Licensure: Certifications for most professions and licenses can be sent electronically to either the licensee's email address or an email address provided by the licensee. Electronic Certifications are not available for licenses that have been disciplined. To send an electronic Certification of Licensure, licensees will need to create and log into their account at the Department's Online Services Portal:

<https://ilesonline.idfpr.illinois.gov/DFPR/Default.aspx>
