Education

Dietitian Nutritionists Educated Inside the United States

Applicants must provide certification of education and an official transcript indicating a baccalaureate degree or post baccalaureate degree in human nutrition, foods and nutrition, dietetics, food systems management, nutrition education, nutrition, nutrition science, clinical nutrition, applied clinical nutrition, nutrition counseling, nutrition and functional medicine, or nutrition and integrated health from a school or program accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the Council on Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) and the U.S. Department of Education; OR

Dietitian Nutritionists Educated Outside the United States or one of its Territories

Applicant must provide certification of education and official transcript indicating a baccalaureate degree or post baccalaureate degree in an equivalent major course of study as determined by the Board and approved by the Department in accordance with the Dietitian Nutritionist Practice Act.

NOTE: An equivalent major course of study must include specific course work in clinical life science and nutrition and/or metabolism as outlined in Section 1245.130 of the Administrative Rules.

Experience

Nine hundred (900) hours of experience in dietetics or nutrition must be completed in the United States within a 5 year time frame. The experience must have been received from a supervisor who, at the time direct supervision took place, had at least 3 years of experience in dietetics and nutrition and was one of the following:

1. An individual who holds an active license in Illinois or an actively licensed resident of another jurisdiction if the jurisdiction in which the supervisor practices requires licensure;
2. A licensed practitioner (such as a licensed physician or registered nurse) whose license includes nutrition care;
3. An individual with doctoral degree conferred by a US regionally accredited college or university with a major course of study in human nutrition, nutrition education, food and nutrition, dietetics or food systems management, nutrition, nutrition science, clinical nutrition, applied clinical nutrition, nutrition counseling, nutrition and functional medicine, or nutrition and integrative health;
4. A registered dietitian or registered dietitian nutritionist of the Commission on Dietetic Registration;
5. A certified clinical nutritionist of the Clinical Nutrition Certification Board;
6. A certified nutrition specialist of the Board of Certification of Nutritionist Specialists;
7. A diplomate of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics; or
8. A supervisor approved by the Department.

The supervisor shall observe, supervise and assess the applicant through contact or meetings with the supervisee. The practice experience may be obtained concurrently with or following the completion of the education requirements. Internships approved by the following meet the experience requirements:

1. Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics;
2. American Clinical Board of Nutrition;
3. Board for Certification of Nutrition Specialists; and Application for Examination

Supporting Documentation

To apply to take the examination for licensure as a Dietitian Nutritionist, the following Supporting Documents must be submitted with the 4-page Application for Licensure and/or Examination:

Application for licensure by examination is a dual application process. Your application for examination will be evaluated by the Department of Financial and Professional Regulation to determine your eligibility for examination. If it is determined that you are eligible for examination, included in the Department's notification will be an examination registration form, and further instructions.

1. CT (Certification of Licensure)--If you have ever held a license as a dietitian/nutritionist in another jurisdiction, this document must be completed by the jurisdiction of original licensure and the jurisdiction of current licensure where you have most recently been practicing. You are authorized to photocopy the form if necessary.

2. ED (Certification of Education)--This document must be completed in its entirety by an official of the college or university from which your degree was received and must have school seal affixed.

3. Submit an official transcript from a baccalaureate or post baccalaureate program in an acceptable major course of study with school seal affixed.

4. Licensed Dietitian Nutritionist Academic Criteria--This document must be completed if you are applying on the basis of similar degree program. Include copies of course descriptions for each course.

5. Dietitian Nutritionist Educated Outside the United States or one of its Territories--You must have your education credentials evaluated by an accrediting agency approved by the U.S. Department of Education as offering a degree equivalent to the baccalaureate or post-baccalaureate degree conferred by a regionally accredited college or university in the United States.

6. VE-DNU (Verification of Employment/Experience)--This document must be used for supervised experience earned after July 1, 1995 and must show verification of at least 900 hours of supervised experience as defined on page 2 of this application.

Note

Applicants who fail the examination three times shall be required to submit proof to the Department of the completion of 6 semester hours of dietetic and nutrition course work as defined in the Rules.
Acceptance of Examination

Supporting Documentation

To apply for licensure on the basis of Acceptance of Examination, the following supporting documents must be submitted with the 4- page Application for Licensure and/or Examination:

1. CT (Certification of Licensure)--If you have ever held a license as a dietitian nutritionist in another state or territory of the United States or in a foreign country, this document must be completed by the jurisdiction of original licensure and the jurisdiction of current licensure where you have most recently been practicing. You are authorized to photocopy the form if necessary.

2. ED (Certification of Education)--This document must be completed in its entirety by an official of the college or university from which your degree was received and must have school seal affixed.

3. Submit an official transcript from a baccalaureate or post baccalaureate program in an acceptable major course of study as outlined in Section 1245.130 of the Rules with school seal affixed.

4. Licensed Dietitian Nutritionist Academic Criteria--This document must be completed if you are applying on the basis of a similar degree program. Include copies of course descriptions for each course.

5. Dietitian Nutritionists Educated Outside the United States or one of its Territories--You must have your education credentials evaluated by an accrediting agency approved by the U.S. Department of Education as offering a degree equivalent to the baccalaureate or post baccalaureate degree conferred by a regionally accredited college or university in the United States.

6. VE-DNU (Verification of Employment/Experience)--This document must show verification of at least 900 hours of supervised experience or an internship as defined on page 2 of this application.

   For experience earned after July 1, 1996, supervisor(s) must submit a vitae in order to verify 3 years of employment in dietetics.

7. Proof of passage of the examination given through the Commission on Dietetic Registration; the American Clinical Board of Nutrition; the Board for Certification of Nutrition Specialists; and the Clinical Nutrition Certification Board during the last 12 months. (This applies to individuals who are not "Registered Dietitians" with CDR).
